Hi

b6 -2

I have another group for an intro to terrorism (2nd edition) book. I authored parts (but not all) of these various chapters. At this point, I'm not sure which is which.

BTW, how do things look for the ones I submitted in January? Thanks!!

Re: Speaking Engagement and Powerpoint Slides for the American College of Sports Medicine

Dear Dr. Yoder,

This letter is in response to your March 9, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at the American College of Sports Medicine pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak and your Powerpoint slides are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

259-112-165-204

PREPUB-6787

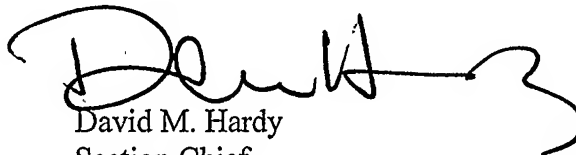

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquiry, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the presentation are yours and not those of the FBI.

Thanks for taking the time for the quick chat.

Attached is my book proposal that I would like to submit. All the content is based upon my years of experience both pre-bu and bu. Most of the content has nothing to do with my Bu work, but I have been able to utilize it here as well. The book is really leadership and relationship focused with some light anecdotes from all aspects of my life to illustrate points.

Thanks again and please let me know if anything requires any more clarification.

Re: "The Compendium of Enterprise Content Management Knowledge"

Dear Mr. Murphy,

This letter is in response to your request of March 15, 2011, for review of the above referenced compendium for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your compendium, as presented.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your compendium with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);
- MAOP §1-27; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- MAOP §1-16.2; 5 C.F.R. §2635.807 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3; (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter and your work have been forwarded to that office for their information.

Attached please find two files. They are two draft book chapters to be published by the John Benjamins Publishing Company upon acceptance by the editors of the Benjamins translation book series. The book compiler and editor is Dr. Alan Melby of Bringham Young University. The expected date of publication is 2011.

The first chapter, entitled: "Cornstalks Sitting in Barns: A Perspective on Translation in the U.S. Government National Security Community", is written by Mr. Jeffrey Robinson, Director of the National Virtual Translation Center.

The second, entitled: "NEWTTON: Capturing and Reusing Human Language Knowledge for High-Quality Translation" is written by myself, Carol Van Ess-Dykema, Director of Technology at the National Virtual Translation Center.

Mr. Robinson and I are submitting the chapters for pre-publication release approval so that we can send them to Dr. Melby for inclusion in his discussions with the John Benjamins translation book series editors.

If you have any questions, please let me know and I will do my best to answer them. Thank you.

Regards,

Carol Van Ess-Dykema

Re: Two Chapters for the Benjamins Translation Book Series

Dear Dr. Van Ess-Dykema,

This letter is in response to your request of March 18, 2011, for review of the above referenced book chapters for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your book chapters, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the chapters are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Speaking Engagement and Powerpoint Slides for the International Annual Meeting on Computer-Assisted Translation and Terminology

Dear Dr. Van Ess-Dykema,

This letter is in response to your April 14, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at the International Annual Meeting on Computer-Assisted Translation and Terminology pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak and your powerpoint slides are approved, subject to the following; Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process

Good morning [redacted]

This is the powerpoint that will accompany my paper for my class. I am only talking about [redacted] so I will not be discussing any operational details and thus nothing classified. My presentation style uses bullet points and pictures rather than lots of text on the slides so I understand if you are not sure what exactly I will be saying on each slide. If that's a problem please let me know. I'm working as fast as I can on the paper. It's due on April 27th. I'm more than halfway done and I hope to complete it by the end of this weekend. My residential address is [redacted]
